

Process Safety Assessment Supervisor

Overview

Location

Jingmen, China

Department

Institute of Synthesis

Responsibilities

- Organize departmental staff to obtain and identify the occupational health and safety production laws and regulations and standards and norms applicable to the project in a timely manner and conduct timely training for practitioners.
- Assist the project manager and subordinate leaders and organize the safety department to formulate the rules and regulations on occupational health and safety production with the responsibility system as the core.
- Participate in the development of safety operating procedures.
- Organize departmental staff to prepare safety production guarantee plan, annual (quarterly) safety production work plan, and regularly check the implementation of the plan.
- Supervise and inspect the departments, sections, work groups and ships to conscientiously implement national production safety guidelines, policies, regulations, decrees, standards and superior instructions and resolutions, etc., and organize the signing of production safety responsibility letters.
- Complete other work arranged by supervisor.